

Annual Report 2022

SCIENCE MUSEUM OF VIRGINIA

Message from the Chief Wonder Officer

The biggest misperception about the Science Museum of Virginia is that we are here to teach kids science. We are here to change everyone's perspective on our world. It is an awesome responsibility and one that we honor daily. The numbers in this report show the impact of your support for the Science Museum. But at the end of the day, we are less about numbers and more about creating moments of inspiration. And as you can see from the pictures below, one moment leads to another.

Thank you for making all of this possible!

Richard C. Conti
Chief Wonder Officer
